Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to replace the current interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mrs Balogun-Sadiq will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mrs Balogun-Sadiq is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Balogun-Sadiq will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on her behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mrs Balogun-Sadiq must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Balogun-Sadiq does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim suspension order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mrs Balogun-Sadiq and her representative will be invited to attend.

Mrs Balogun-Sadiq should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Balogun-Sadiq or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mrs Balogun-Sadiq. The NMC will write to Mrs Balogun-Sadiq when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Balogun-Sadiq in writing.

That concludes this determination.
