Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim conditions of practice order.

The panel has determined that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

‘For the purposes of these conditions, ‘employment’ and ‘work’ mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, ‘course of study’ and ‘course’ mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.

1. You must limit your nursing practice to a single substantive employer, which must not be an agency.
2. You must not be employed as a registered nurse as a deputy manager or manager of any healthcare setting.
3. You must not be the nurse in charge of any shift.
4. You must ensure that you are indirectly supervised at any time you are working. Your supervision must consist of:
 - Working at all times on the same shift as, but not always directly observed by another registered nurse.
5. You must meet with your line manager, mentor or supervisor every two weeks to discuss your progress and clinical practice in relation to:
 - Use of appropriate restraint;
 - Moving and Handling;
 - Making and undertaking ‘best interest’ decisions; and
 - De-escalation of challenging incidents.
6. You will send the NMC case officer, prior to any review hearing or meeting, a report from your line manager, outlining your progress in relation to:

- Use of appropriate restraint;
- Moving and Handling;
- Making and undertaking 'best interest' decisions; and
- De-escalation of challenging incidents.

7. You must undertake training and send your case officer evidence of this training within seven days of its completion, in relation to:

- Use of appropriate restraint;
- Moving and Handling;
- Making and undertaking 'best interest' decisions; and
- De-escalation of challenging incidents.

8. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:

- a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment.
- b) Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.

9. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are studying by:

- a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting any course of study.
- b) Giving your case officer the name and contact details of the organisation offering that course of study.

10. You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:

- a) Any organisation or person you work for.
- b) Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).

- c) Any establishment you apply to (at the time of application), or with which you are already enrolled, for a course of study.
11. You must tell your case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:
- a) Any clinical incident you are involved in.
 - b) Any investigation started against you.
 - c) Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.
12. You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
- a) Any current or future employer.
 - b) Any educational establishment.
 - c) Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions.

Unless Mrs Parker's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Mrs Parker or the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review, the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

In certain circumstances, it may be possible for the interim conditions of practice order to be reviewed by a reviewing panel at an administrative meeting. Mrs Parker's case officer will write to her about this in due course.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations that have been made against you. The NMC will keep you informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Parker in writing.

That concludes this determination.
