Interim order to be reviewed:	Interim conditions of practice order (18 months)
Outcome of review:	Interim conditions of practice replaced with interim suspension order

Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to replace the current interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

Unless Mrs Burwood's case has already been concluded or there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at a review meeting within the next six months and every six months thereafter. A panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mrs Burwood will be notified of the panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the order should be revoked or replaced, or there has been a request for an early review, a panel will review the interim order at a hearing which Mrs Burwood will be invited to attend in person, send a representative on Mrs Burwood's behalf or submit written representations for the panel to consider. At any such review hearing the panel may revoke the interim order, it may confirm the interim suspension order, or it may replace it with an interim conditions of practice order.

The NMC has referred Mrs Burwood's name's case to the Investigating Committee. Once the NMC has completed its investigation, a panel of the Investigating Committee will consider whether Mrs Burwood's name's entry on the register was incorrectly made or fraudulently procured, and it will make a decision about what action to take.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Burwood in writing.

That concludes this determination.
