Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mrs Hudson will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mrs Hudson is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Hudson will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Mrs Hudson's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mrs Hudson must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Hudson does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mrs Hudson and her representative will be invited to attend.

Mrs Hudson should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Hudson or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations made against Mrs Hudson. The NMC will keep Mrs Hudson informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Hudson in writing.

That concludes this determination.
