Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim conditions of practice order.

The panel was of the view that the public and the wider public interest would remain suitably protected by the implementation of the following conditions:

'For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.'

The panel decided to confirm this interim conditions of practice order and it will run for the remainder of the current interim order.

Unless Mr Kachili's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter.

Additionally, Mr Kachili or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review, the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

In certain circumstances, it may be possible for the interim conditions of practice order to be reviewed by a reviewing panel at an administrative meeting. Mr Kachili's case officer will write to him about this in due course.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mr Kachili. The NMC will write to Mr Kachili when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mr Kachili in writing.

That concludes this determination.
